

The Son of Man's last Celebration of a Holy Festival on Earth

FESTIVAL OF THE RADIANT STAR

December 29, 1937

„Jesus had one traitor, but I have a hundred!“

The sifting has been completed! All those who were capable of breaking the oath had to be eliminated so as to also pull along those who were found to be lukewarm, as well as halfmeasures which were never able to provide the proper soil for the Word.

They had to depart; and the fact that they fell victim to the darkness was obvious to anyone by the way in which their departure occurred. There was nothing noble in it; for the darkness cannot be noble.

Everyone had to show themselves exactly as they are! In this lay the fulfillment and the decision. And this they did.

The very way in which they did this bore witness anew to the truth of my words in the Message, as well as to the fact that in the end the darkness, even in its evil volition, must now serve the Light. Thus renegades involuntarily became witnesses to my Word.

Although this path is painful for me it does bring liberation, as many of those who loyally stood by the Light were able to perceive clearly enough for themselves.

Not one of the apostates could have been permitted to enter the new spiritual ground at the hour determined by God as the first hour for His Kingdom. The soil for this had to be purified first.

What will follow now will be experienced by everyone for himself and everyone will recognize the hand of God therein. No one will remain in doubt as to where the Light is to be found.

This is all I have to say to you today. But never forget that I came to you and did not step out from amongst you!

Do not try to measure me by human standards; it would be wrong, since to a large extent these are very distorted and can no longer be brought into harmony with the Will of God, with the true Divine Laws. For this reason there is much about me that is incomprehensible to you until you will once again have found the way to comprehension.

I come from out of the Light and put all my thinking and activity into my task on earth in accordance with my way, not in accordance with your ways which will not comprehend many aspects of my way. However, not I but you earthlings must change in this, since in reality you have long ago turned away from God although you often have His All-Holy Name on your lips.

Your teacher will now be your own experiencing! You will then finally realize that it is not I who must adjust to your intentions and opinions in order to be accepted by you but that you must learn to adjust yourselves to me in this.

I come from the Father, the Creator and proprietor of this earth and everything upon it as His Son and His appointee to demand from you His property for the final reckoning so that it may then be returned to you in a purified state for continued stewardship within the Will of God. Therefore I cannot think or act in any other way.

I said once before: My way is not your way! Men, however, are likely to understand this to its full extent only when I am no longer on this earth; today you are still too far away from this understanding.

Nonetheless, today those who have remained faithful in the purifying storms shall receive of all the blessings granted by the Light.

Receive them in humility so that they will be to your benefit! AMEN

Listen to my prayer and let it fill your spirit:

Lord, the only all-powerful, all-knowing God, my Father! You have led me on this earth in Your wisdom and unfathomable Goodness so that my working may flourish on a soil cleansed of all selfish demands of the calculations of vain earthlings and of all half measures of earthly desires.

Although the path I had to walk often seemed painful, for human minds cannot understand my deeds and thoughts and they define falsely what does not agree with their reasoning, I do know that Your Wisdom lovingly determines my paths! O Father, in my work here on earth I will never be able to give you the gratitude that you should expect of me; for men will not learn to regard my ways as quite different from theirs; they all insist on measuring me by the standards their own distorted intellect has formed.

They forget , or will not come to the recognition, that the earth and everything upon it belongs to You, that they are only guests, Your guests, not proprietors.

/For this reason You will now, before the beginning, prepare in Your Wisdom, that soil that is needed for Your Kingdom, that bears fruit of Your Word a thousandfold and must bring Holy Peace.

Thanks be to You, o Father, now and forever, in all eternity for this great help! You Yourself erect the work on earth for which I was sent by You in fulfillment!

„Now go forth and experience! I have nothing more to tell you!“
