

Preface

THIS WRITING IS MEANT ONLY FOR YOU

Before reading this text it is essential for you to know the “Calls from Primordial Creation 2013/2014” as well as the Lecture “Let There Be Light” in the version published by “Der Ruf (The Call)” during the life of the author. This lecture is attached to this writing. Of further help in understanding this writing are the Lectures “Life” and “The Cycle of Radiations” as well as the Lecture “Jesus and Imanuel in “Resonances to the Grail Message I”.

The Son of Man and the Hour of Fulfillment

Who among you has even the faintest idea of the significance of the prophecy “The Hour of Fulfillment” for the human spirit.

It shall mean the consummation of the Word once sent out by God “Let There Be Light” which was the beginning of everything for you.

Nothing of such magnitude has happened since.

“The hour of Fulfillment” – it brings deliverance but also annihilation. Its beginning was announced to you when Imanuel walked the earth.

The closing of the cycle, however, will be fulfilled only with the return of Imanuel to His origin.

With it the end will flow into the beginning and the beginning will flow into the end.

Perfect is the work of GOD, and now the consummation is near.

IMANUEL!

Who among you has even an inkling of the significance of this name for humanity.

You know well the words that are closely connected with this name:

“In the beginning was the Word – and the Word was with God – and God was the Word.”

These words introduce the history of Creation.

And every history contains a development and every development has a beginning as well as an end which must arrive at some point.

Let there be Light...! Marked the beginning. Millions of years of developments followed as well as many Light connections.

There were seven since the downfall of mankind. The last great connection was that of the Son of Man.

Everything, however, led up to one goal: the final closing of the cycle in which the end connects with the beginning.

This announces for you the climax of the World Judgment. But where does it come from and how does it occur?

Since the Divine Laws allow for no other way than that everything must, after its time of development, return to the origin of its species, so also will at one time the Part of Imanuel that once was separated and sent out in order to enable the human spirit to gain eternal consciousness, in the closing of the cycle be reunited with Its origin in accordance with the Law.

This is a completely natural process which initiates the climax of the World Judgment as a consequence of the alignment of all Planes of Creation in a straight line with the Origin of all Life, the Original Light.

Careful attention was paid so that this would occur only at a time when the cycle of radiation all the way down into the world of matter could no longer be torn asunder, thus allowing for eternal existence of all planes now in direct connection with the origin.

However, through the pressure caused by the straightening of the line, all that up to this point has not placed itself properly within the Laws will after purification be cleansed or cut off.

But let us return again to the beginning.

Untold ages ago the persistent urging of the Substantiality still unconsciously pulsing at the edge of Divine Substantiality was granted the Grace of a chance of gaining a conscious existence.

For this purpose the Will of God "Immanuel" severed a Part of His Unsubstantiated Core and placed it at the edge of the Divine Substantiality, into the Grail Castle. In the Divine, the concept "Part" also stands for "Son". Thus, the still un-conscious Spiritual could emerge from the Divine-Substantiality so as to become conscious. This was possible only because a Part of Imanuel illuminated the lightless cosmos. This Part of Imanuel thus formed Himself into the Son of Man since He was chosen to hold the Human Spiritual and prevent it from becoming lost. His radiation, which outside of the Divine Substantiality penetrated into the lightless cosmos immediately developed and enveloped itself with the purest of the now emerged Spiritual. Thereby arose Parsifal and with Him the Grail Castle in the Primordial Spiritual. He thereby became the counter pole of the Son of Man which process was necessary so as to prevent the Unsubstantiated Part from out of Imanuel from being drawn back to His origin. Thus Imanuel, Son of Man, was held in the Divine-Substantiated Grail Castle through Parsifal, while at the same time Parsifal was anchored in the Primordial Spiritual Grail Castle through Imanuel, the Son of Man.

You believe to be familiar with this process already, but impress it upon your mind again.

The Divine Will Imanuel separated a part of Himself and placed It at the edge of the Divine-Substantiality so as to illuminate the empty space. In order to prevent this Part from being re-attracted by Its own species Its radiation outside of the Divine-Substantiality was enveloped in a cloak of the most noble from out of the Spiritual and was thus anchored. This was the hour of the birth of Parsifal.

Immanuel is the Will of God and it is correct to say that He is God Himself. The separated Part that was placed into the Divine –Substantiality is the Son of Man and His Radiation that became an Individual Person outside of the Divine-Substantiality in the Primordial-Spiritual is Parsifal. Parsifal's origin is in the Primordial-Spiritual Creation , but Imanuel, Son of Man, works through Him. They are One, but in their activity they are Two. It would be equally appropriate to say that they are Two, yet One in their activity.

Since then it has been necessary for the Son of Man to remain separate from His origin, the Will of God, and to dwell in the Grail Castle. Thus He became the Outborn Son. As opposed to Jesus Who is the Inborn Son.

This separation was God's loving sacrifice to Creation and all creatures that can become conscious therein.

All this happened millions of years ago. The first and purest of the Spiritual came alive and radiated downward, its volition forming further planes step upon step downward. The dwellers in all these planes were given the possibility of a conscious existence. The last ones in this chain are the developed human spirits. All of this is familiar to you from the Message.

However, the fact that Imanuel, the Son of Man, is a Part of of Imanuel, the Will of God Himself, seems new to many.

Some may have had an inkling already for how should God separate His own Will from Himself. His Will Which is an integral part of Him , which indeed He Himself is.

Thus, God separated a Part of Imanuel leaving It for a period of millions of years to Creation and the Spiritual for the purpose of development.

Since then the Son of Man dwells in the Divine Grail Castle anchored to Parsifal in the Primordial-Spiritual Grail Castle

From the Grail Castle the living power descends upon the high Substantiality which in turn bestows this radiation downward step upon step. The turning point for this radiation is the earth where this power bestowed by the high Substantiality is to be processed by the human Spiritual and be re-attracted upward by the Primordially Created Ones. Through these and via Parsifal it will be magnetically attracted to the Son of Man through the gates of the Divine Grail Castle. Through this cycle of radiation Creation will be connected more and more firmly with Imanuel, the Son of Man, as it will be held by Him.

This is the Cycle of the Grail Movement. For it extends from plane to plane, from Grail Castle to Grail Castle.

The separation of the Son of Man from His origin, however, made it necessary from time to time for the Dove, that is Imanuel Himself, to appear above the Holy Grail in order to renew directly from the Light, from God, the power for Creation.

The movement of this radiation, however, was sullied by the human Spiritual and thereby interrupted for the earth whose falling off was unstoppable.

A mission became necessary since now, millions of years later, the time had come for the Son of Man to return to His Unsubstantiated origin. The earth, however, as the last anchorage of the Light, threatened to fall off in this process.

To prevent this from happening Parsifal was sent throughout the worlds in Abd-ru-shin. He brought humanity the knowledge of Creation, also in preparation for the consummation in which Imanuel, the Son of Man, descended from the Divine down to the earth.

With the knowledge about Imanuel, the Son of Man, every human spirit is now able to purify and close again the cycle of radiation through his transformed intuitive sense thus creating the possibility of salvation for himself and others. The knowledge of the activity of Imanuel will create the connection to Him before He returns to His own species and origin in accordance with the Laws.

As mentioned at the beginning of this text the Divine Laws absolutely require that everything return to its origin, that is to its own species.

Through this reunification the line between the earth and the Light will be tightened and straightened. Creation thus hangs directly on the origin of all Life.

The Power will then pulse permanently and incessantly. It is only with this process that the work of Creation is completed which began with the Words "Let There Be Light...!"

This process, however, also requires the straightening at the same time of all that is bent which constitutes the end of the World Judgment. It will also be the moment that the earth will be raised. According to your time calendar this moment may last for years. The coarsest, least light-permeable part, however, will fall off together with everything attached to it.

From then on all of the rest of Creation will be eternal since it is held by Imanuel Who is now with God. At the same time, however, Creation also holds Imanuel, the Son of Man, so that He will not completely re-enter but merely re-connect with His origin.

Thus the Son of Man will be the eternal mediator from God to His Work. It is only with this act that the Work of Creation is consummated and can continue to exist forever.

For this time there will have to arise a Grail Castle on earth also to be the hub and umbilical cord for the now permanently entering power.

From this moment on there is no longer the need for confirmation of the covenant that the Creator has been upholding toward His Work for millions of years.

The earth will appear completely changed to you.

Failure will hardly be possible any longer. Anything that fails will directly be pulled into a slow but certain process of disintegration similar to a body that is slowly falling ill with leprosy. It will in this way be obvious who has failed and there will be a completely new kind of healer who will be able to help by recognizing the causes of disease in the volition of the soul.

This subject will be dealt with in a separate writing when the time for it has come.

Let us return to the closing of the cycle of the history of Creation.

Impress upon your mind once more: At the time of the Son of Man's re-uniting with His origin the radiation cycle of the Grail Movement from the Divine-Substantiate Part of the Grail Castle down to the earth must stand strong and untearable. Only thus and then is it possible for the earth to be raised in this process. If this cycle of movement does not exist the earth will be cut off.

This final process in the history of Creation will at the same time be the end of the World Judgment.

The Kingdom of the Millennium is a period of Grace in which this development can take place.

The World Judgment, on the other hand, is an inevitable process which is simply the consequence of the necessary process of straightening the line to the Light which should be accompanied by consciousness expansion of all that is Spiritual. Purification, cleansing and re-forming of all that is false will then bring healing.

To this point everything has been prepared by the Light so that this process may also be your salvation. Now man must contribute his share.

For whether or not such a healing World Judgment will occur depends on you , human beings.

If the World Judgment will not bring healing it will bring destruction and there will be constant upheaval around you without any healing transformations. Only the life of your intellect and feelings favored by the darkness will continue to retain its pinnacle until it is destroyed. The darkness will continue to block everything and a slow fall toward the state of complete torpor will be the end of those human spirits that are still tied to the earth. The demons they produced can survive at first but the spirit germs are freed under greatest torments since they must be returned to their origin.

Lucifer's fate may be similar for only his origin in the Divine is eternal whilst his volition is transient.

Only Life Itself can be truly eternal, and God alone is Life. Only that which is connected to Him is able to live in eternal consciousness. Lucifer is still helping himself to the living Power which he re-directs for his own purposes.

With the completion, however, cycle closure is enforced for everything and everything must return to its origin – either robbed of its personality or cleansed of all wrong volition. This goes for Lucifer also.

He was fettered for a thousand years for the sake of humans who were still able to be saved but had fallen through him. If his core had been separated from his volition already then, they would all have been lost since they are attached to his volition. For the sake of Justice they first received the chance to change their volition without the direct influence of Lucifer. This is also a purpose of the Kingdom of the Millennium. For this purpose he was fettered for a thousand years. After this the earth will be either cleansed or it will have fallen off.

Now back to what is crucial for you now.

At this time the earth is at a crossroads of two possible developments - one of a healing and one of a destructive Final Judgment.

There are only a few human beings who are still able to prevent a destructive Judgment by purifying and re-fortifying the radiation cycle of the Grail Movement for the earth.

You who know the Message and have read the new Calls from Primordial Creation and now have this writing before you can be connected with this circle. It was not by accident that you came to this point. It happened in the same way that you were led to the Message.

Through the new knowledge you now receive and which you have to process with your intuitive sense you can cleanse the Movement from the Grail. It will thereby be attracted by the Primordially Created Ones in order to close the necessary cycle of radiation from you to the Son of Man.

You can and you must, if only you will, be the anchorage for the Light on earth. For this you were led and thus are the last hope.

Therefore, hear the words again:

"If you fail the world will fall!"

Make every effort, make it your whole life's goal; even if the earth should have to fall after all, you can still save yourselves and a few others with you since you were able to maintain the cycle of radiation at least for yourselves.

Whoever still hesitates and puts his head in the sand is passing his own judgment.

Open your soul wide so that the power will reach you if you want to serve with all your heart. Your faith must be strong. If you ask yourselves how you should do this, know that only the intellect asks such questions. Your intellect will never comprehend it, but your spirit knows what it has to do.

A net of light rays will then connect you. You will sense it and an unfamiliar kind of bliss will illuminate your soul. Be sure that all those who can be saved along with you will cling to you; for they will sense what it means for them although they do not yet understand it. But keep in mind that relative to the large number of people inhabiting the earth there are only a few who can be saved along with you. Do not bother with the others.

Perfect is the Work of Creation. With the fulfilment to the consummation, however, it will be eternal; and it is this knowledge that can save you.

Signed

Simon
