

COSMIC TURNING POINT

On July 21, 1929

Cosmic Turning Point - the end of human willfulness. All that is hostile to the Light, all that goes against the Divine Laws, will perish!

Men, you do not know all that is contained in these words, you have no idea of how all-powerful the final happenings are which are activated through them now with this Cosmic Turning Point. Mercury's Wheel unrolls faster, ever faster, finally at break-neck speed, tearing open the foundation of this earth defiled by human guilt which has already trembled and shaken and torn down any obstacle that arose through the conceit of wrong human volition.-

With iron fist destiny thunders at the gates of human souls so that they are startled awake in fear and have to clear the way for the approaching storm of the new Creation Day! Trembling, the blood-stained earth shakes in the labor pains of the Light-willed, all-encompassing purification with the flames of the onrushing Radiant Star. The Star brings the activation according to the Creation Law of the Holy Judgment in the gross-material world as has been promised for a long time and prepared in every way by the elemental helpers.

That the power of the Ray aglow with spirit of this great comet has to activate a Judgment is only owing to human beings who, turned away from God in their willfulness and selfishness, formed evil works which do not tolerate the purifying Ray of the Light but will falter and fall into ruin. With the Radiant Star's primal power, the Cosmic Turning Point brings upliftment of this earth and its humanity into the region in which it now belongs in accordance with the Law of the Divine Will.-

This great Turning Point comes upon humanity when it is unprepared since it left the God-willed course from which it is now worlds apart and has long since become rigidified in putrid, dark self-will; for on earth, the cold intellect rules which can no longer find connection with the spirit's living Ray from above, which alone could give it warmth and set it aglow. Thus, the products of the intellect such as in technology, politics and economy, are cold and without life.

If men on earth were as mature in their spiritual development as they should be today, had they sought to observe all the laws in Creation, if mankind were not so rigidified in their repulsive self-conceit and arrogant spiritual apathy, the appearance of the Radiant Star in the great Cosmic Turning Point could become mankind's greatest hour thus far and bring only blissful joy, jubilant rapture, in thankful veneration of the LORD Who sent it! The Turning Point of these worlds would have brought humanity on earth more profound, living faith through expanded recognition in the Light knowledge.

As it is, however, through God's mercy, the only help possible for mankind in their unrepentant obstinacy is.....suffering, for many it is damnation, if they will not change and adjust themselves to the perfect Primordial Creation Laws which bear the Will of GOD.-

Most men on earth not only do not have the slightest idea of the all-comprising happening of the Cosmic Turning Point, but in rigid willfulness and childish defiance, have built solid walls around their self so as to dream, inwardly closed off, and as if paralyzed, toward the sleep of death.

That is why they now see the sword of the Light as an enemy instead of as the last help of God's unfathomable Mercy; for in their evil volition and selfish desires they have turned away from the Light and have distanced themselves for a long time already much too far from any possibility of spiritual comprehension owing to the control of the progressively convincing, spirit-oppressing intellect which, in its earth-bound all-rigidifying restriction, spans the entire earth.

The earthly intellect as it wrongly proliferated completely one-sidedly, whereas it was meant to become only an executing tool for human spiritual volition, now impairs all volition and was bound to end in cold rigidification. Without being set aglow by the intuition's pure volition the intellect must solidify; for the spark that enlivens and warms the human intellect is alone the spirit!

However, for thousands of years already, the human spirit has been in a deep sleep, so deep that he no longer is able even to distinguish between spirit and the intellect. Because of his ignorance and under the control of the intellect, in blind faith he fell, as an unsuspecting victim, into the tentacles of the erroneous ways of the creeping Darkness.

Thus, many will succumb to the delusion of their indolent spirit and will not awaken to the radiance of the Great New World Day; for the limitless dominance of the earth-bound intellect will not let them recognize the help of GOD in the WORD as the last help.

I, however, say to you: The gate of help has fallen shut for those who reject! There are only two kinds of intuitive sensations which you must experience now: Joy or suffering, depending on an individual's orientation.

In the Word of the Message you find the path and the power to ascend out of the swamp of the darkened worlds onto healthy soil which no longer shakes as does the earth which has sunk so low through the guilt of man.

Thus, for the majority of mankind the only way is that of suffering, for many it is damnation, into which they must fall reciprocally through their hateful volition and Light-averted activity if they will not resolve to change themselves at this fateful hour; for the gate to help for those who reject has fallen shut!

Thus, the Cosmic Turning Point now is a holy happening. It brings help and strength to everything that, striving for the Light in good volition, swings in the Laws of God. Pain and suffering and finally the fall, however, to everything that will not adapt itself to it as behooves the human spirit.

Poor, small human beings, such great things I gave to you, and how carelessly have you toyed with them! The masses, however, have not paid any attention at all to the Message from the Light in the self-delusion of their own greatness. All of you will now prove your true self in the experiences of the Cosmic Turning Point.

Through implacably severe suffering which strikes them reciprocally there will be some who will still realize how wrong their thoughts and actions have been hitherto and that true help lies far from their proud hopes, whereas the enemies of GOD must perish in the pain of the Judgment Ray of Imanuel, which brings retribution for all who seek feloniously to destroy the peace of the spirit so as to arrogantly rule in the Darkness of lies. In the increased power of the Light, however, and due to the intensification of their damnable arrogance, many turned into hate-filled enemies of GOD and must now fall from the earthly throne of borrowed power into the gruesome night of disintegration.

Therefore, woe to all who can no longer free themselves from the walls of their fateful delusion; for they miss thereby the only way to salvation which they forfeited because of their own plotting earthly pain and death of their fellow men.

All self-delusion and clever deceit can no longer hide the reality which inevitably comes into full effect pushing aside the obstacles of the clever intellect until nothing can be sustained here on earth, as well as in the ethereal world, that disturbs the God-willed upbuilding!

Already, screams of despair shrill throughout a humanity in despair. Man must now experience all unfortunate delusion of vainglorious greatness of the dust-born brain in bitter pain and suffering until he will finally rid himself of it and find true humility in spirit or until he will perish in the Darkness of most terrible despair; for in the final happenings the proud edifice of blood-thirsty greed for power will collapse like a pile of dust. – Whatever adheres to it in word and deed will be crushed!

For the way of the Message, however, the intensified power from the Holy Light in the great Transformation brings victory by crushing all obstacles.-

Pain and suffering will have to squeeze you like a wine press squeezes the fruit, and the light ray of the new sun will drink only the ripe juice of grapes!- Only one who can continue to exist due to purity or maturity as a human spirit that was tested through long-suffering, will be able, in personal unfolding, to help with the upbuilding of the new Kingdom according to the Will of the Almighty Creator of all worlds and, in blissful recognition, to get a glimpse of the greatness of His eternal Wisdom; Of the greatness of God.

You, too, who know my Message are still far from being able to intuitively perceive His true greatness! In the Word of Truth I gave you the seed of the wondrous flower from which the flower of true humanness can grow if you carefully guard and tend to it so that it will get stronger and grow in ardent longing for the Light. All of you have the Word that I was able to bring you through the unfathomable Mercy in the Love of God. However, there is hardly one among you who has fully realized Its high meaning. And how far are you still from the concept of jubilant service to the Light!

I will tell you the secret: Only he who joyfully abandons himself in the service for the Light, fulfills the highest, self-conscious humanness wherein he gets an inkling of the inconceivable greatness of God in personal experiencing so that he can stand before Him blissfully as a human being. For only he who works joyfully in the service to God, is regarded as a human being by the Light.

I spread the seed all around you in the Word from which the miracle flower human being can develop. And this miracle flower forms itself in the joyful fulfillment of service in the Will of God which alone brings you paradisiac peace in heavenly joys.

Under the protection of true humanness alone the living spirit seed can ripen into the most beautiful blossom in the intuitive sensing of the Holy Greatness of God. For man, the solution to the great spiritual mystery lies in his capacity for intuitively sensing the Holy Greatness of God.-

Whoever has come this far, however, can no longer do anything but to jubilantly and enthusiastically serve the Most High Ruler and LORD of all worlds. With this, all faults and weaknesses which might hold him down, fall away from the human spirit and he becomes new within through conquering his self in the service to the Holy Light to which belongs his greatest love.

In the awakening of this pure blossom lies what is greatest and most beautiful for man: the sweet fruit of spiritual maturity. However, you do not have this crown of true humanness. In your small self-will you forfeit this most beautiful gift from God! You have not reached the point of intuitively sensing the Greatness of God because you have talked it down in your small earthly intellect. You talk too much of God and His Holy Laws whereby you talk to death the concept of the Highest Life for you. The Holiness can only be intuitively sensed by the human spirit for your intellect has not been straightened out and purified to the point where it stands silent, wretched and small before the inexpressible radiance of the clarity. Speaking about it too much keeps your spirit from experiencing it. Yet, the Grace of being able to intuitively sense the Holy Greatness of God makes man a human being!

With the Word of God that I was permitted to bring, the Cosmic Turning Point has now arrived. This turning point brings salvation and ascent of the spirit only for those who in selfless service will make great efforts and try hard to atone for their failures. In this way alone they will become new within, as Jesus said in the Word: “Unless a man is born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God!”

Yet, all of this has been alien and incomprehensible to this humanity for a long time already, since, in the original fall, they sinfully cut themselves off from the ability to comprehend things of the spirit in submission to the unlimited rule of the cold, rigidified intellect, which, as a light-blazing tool, is a servant to the human spirit only if in the battle with the Darkness, it struggles for liberation and deliverance from the bonds of heavy matter.

The majority of mankind voluntarily remained so ignorant of all this in the great Cosmic Turning Point which is now due; they do not know the Light-strengthened Divine Laws in which the Final Judgment is fulfilled.

This brings helplessness and powerlessness to uprooted humans because they became rigidified in self-will and obstinacy of the false old which grows ever weaker and must perish as being useless for the new time. Their blind spiritual eyes, however, are of no use for the new, so they scorn it. Through this, however, all the solid walls collapse, which the cold earthly intellect had erected so as to feel secure and protected against the finer radiations of the clear light which must strike it painfully and confuse it more and more until it loses all support.

The Holy Power of the Almighty sweeps over the earth defiled through human guilt, and the storm of the great purification soars with iron force across its shaken, torn foundation! The annihilation of all enemies of God is a blessing for the Light-striving humanity; for with them much of the troublesome evil of the hate-filled Darkness falls away from the earth.

Elementally powerful is the happening I was permitted to prepare on earth in accordance with the Almighty's Light Order; for, with the Cosmic Turning Point, it also brings liberation to all Light-striving creatures, and to the awakened spirit it brings deliverance from the sphere of the heaviest Darkness!

I therefore joyfully welcome this hour of Holy Greatness which is now being fulfilled in the Turning Point of this world for everything upon it! Praise, Honor and Gratitude be to the Most Sublime in whose all-holy Power and Grace I was permitted to prepare the unfathomable happening which gives rise to His new Kingdom! Only GOD alone can create it through His Will, for in HIM alone are the Life and the Power!

Amen
